

Updating Biosmart-Studio to the Current Version Through one or Several Intermediate Versions

If you have an outdated version of Biosmart-Studio installed starting from v5.5, you can upgrade to the current version through several intermediate versions.

Make sure to backup your database before updating!

Note:

- It's important to restore from a backup to the version of the studio from which the copy was made;
- After restoring, install the studio over the restored database!

The update is performed over the installed version, i.e. no uninstallation required. Also, before updating, it's recommended to disable the antivirus and firewall. Links to intermediate versions:
